

Working Dog and Fun Day 2009

in support of The Game and Wildlife Conservation Trust

Sunday 14 June 2009 - 10.30 am
The Drift, Manor Farm, Thriplow
(by kind permission of Robert Smith)

This year the event is being sponsored by Skinnners and run in conjunction with a number of other GWCT events nationally. Finalists will be invited to attend the national finals to be held at the Midland Game Fair, Weston Park on 19/20 September 2009.

Classes

- Special Puppy - open to any dog born on or after 01.01.2008
- Novice Dog/Novice Handler - open to dogs and handlers, neither of whom have won any award in a Field Trial or Working Test
- Novice - open to dogs who have not won an award in Field Trial, Open or Intermediate Tests or been placed First in a Novice Test
- Open - open to all

Please pre-register using the form overleaf. Entries on the day will be accepted subject to numbers (between 10.00am and lunch at 1.00pm - no entries after lunch). Scurry and various 'have a go' challenges will run throughout the day (£2 per go - enter on the day).

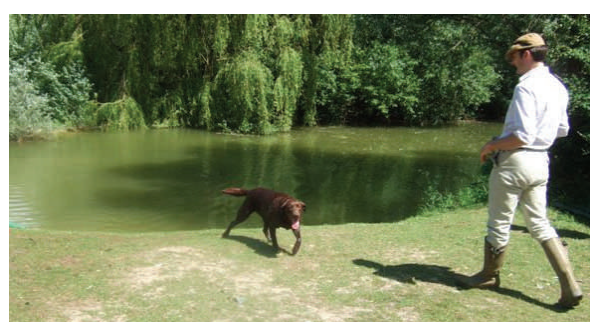

Prizes - Rosettes and prizes to fourth place in each class. Special prizes for Best Dog (Amateurs only), Best GWCT Member and Best Spaniel.

Note: Spaniels will run in the retriever classes but will not qualify for the finals at the Midlands Game Fair. However, everyone is encouraged to take part in any of the classes and there will be special prizes on the day.

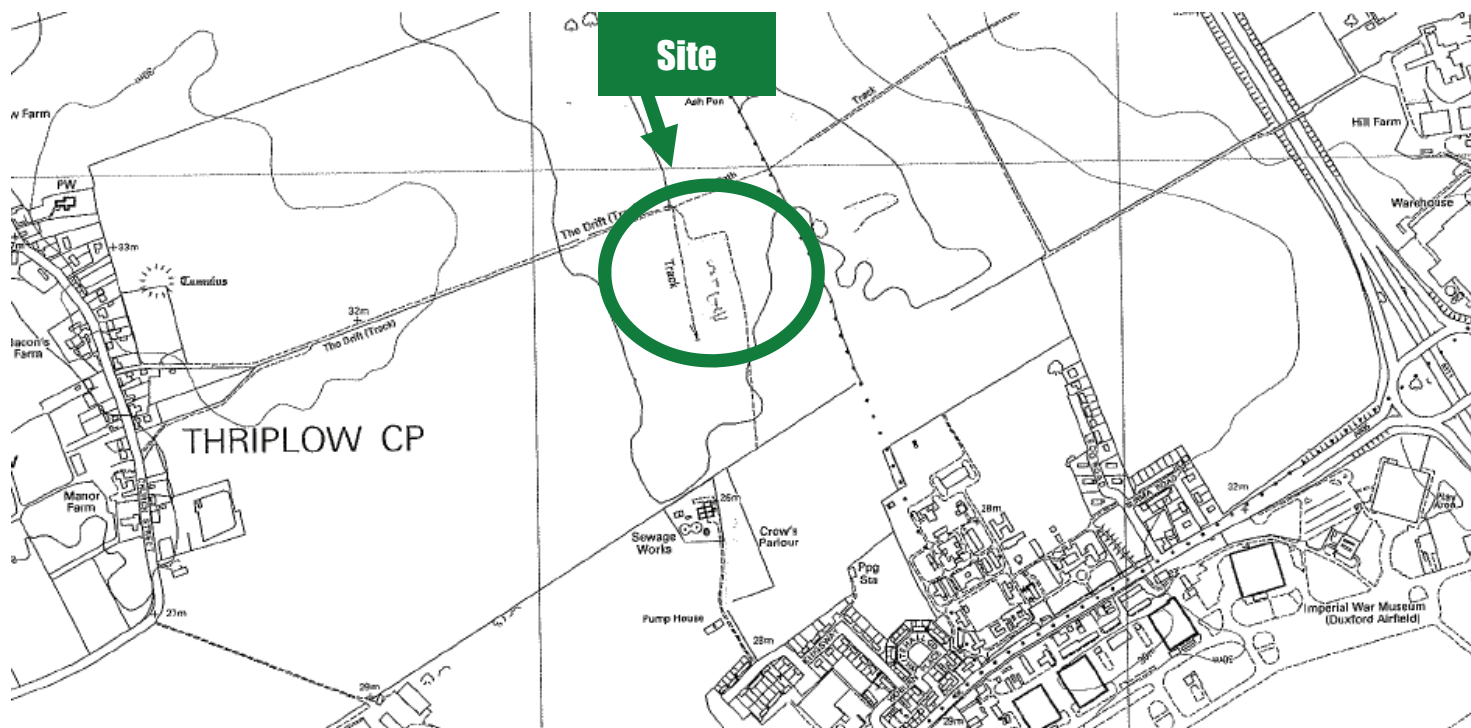

Raffle prizes. Food/refreshments with BBQ throughout the day sponsored by Wicks Manor Pork, Maldon

Friendly fun day for all the family and their dogs!

Please come along and support the GWCT

These pictures were taken from last year's event. Lots of happy dogs - and happy owners!
